April Mission of the Month The Drawer

“THE DRAWER” collects and distributes NEW socks and underwear to men, women, and children. This local nonprofit organization is a grass roots ministry that began 9 years ago. It receives donations from community members, local businesses, nonprofits, and faith-based organizations.

We agree with The Drawer’s motto, “Providing Warmth and Dignity,”
Besides monetary donations, we will be collecting new socks and underwear all month.

Undie Sunday and Bundling Session—May 18th

We will end our socks and underwear collection for our Mission of the Month by holding an Undie Sunday on May 18th after worship. We will gather all the socks and underwear donated in April and hold a bundling session after worship on the 18th.

Putting together 100’s of bundles of new socks and underwear that will go to community groups to distribute takes volunteers. All ages welcome!

We hope to see lots of our members on May 18th to help in this outreach event.
